PRESS RELEASE

The Scott County Conservation Board announces the opening of BUFFALO SHORES CAMPGROUND

Buffalo Shores Campground will re-open on Thursday, May 22nd at 6 a.m. The campground has been closed since April 27th due to flooding. While the majority of the campground will be usable for the Holiday weekend, some wet sites and the river view row of sites will remain closed. No tents will be allowed to be set up on the grass anywhere in the campground until further notice.

In addition, please note that even though the river is open for use, the docks at the boat ramps will not be installed because of the continued high water. We also encourage all park users to use extra precautions on the beach and around wet areas, and to observe health and safety practices associated with flooding.
